

1903-Wright Brothers Flight
1943-UNC-Pembroke College
became the first Native American college.

1960-The first ever sit-in occurs to protest segregation at a diner in Greensboro, NC.

1989-Hurricane Hugo hits causing
wide-spread devastation.
Hurricanes continue to be a common threat for NC.

1994-Raleigh was voted as one the best places to live in the United States.

North Carolina

North Carolina was known as
The Old North State during the American Revolution. It is now known as the Tar Heel state.

State Facts

State Capital-Raleigh

Largest City-Charlotte

Population-8 million

Area-53,000 sq. miles, 28th largest state

Bordering States - GA, SC, TN, VA

Origin of the Name- North Carolina was named to honor King Charles I (Carolus is Latin for Charles)

Presidents born in N.C. - James Knox Polk (11th) and Andrew Johnson (17th)

Following the American Revolution, North Carolina became the twelfth state of the Union. Later, during the Civil War the state joined the Confederacy in 1861.
The troops surrendered in 1865 and joined the Union in 1868.

From thousands of years ago until the early 1600s over 30 Native American groups called the state home. In the late 1500s new settlers from Britain came to the area to form the colony "Carolina".

North Carolina was known as
The Old North State before the Revolution. It is now known as the Heel state.

North Carolina

State Facts

State Capital-Raleigh

Largest City-Charlotte

Population-8 million

Area-53,000 sq. miles, 28th largest state

to

ng

North Carolina was known as The Old North State during the American Revolution. It is now known as the Tar Heel state.

ina

State Facts

State Capital-Raleigh

Largest City-Charlotte

Population-8 million

Area-53,000 sq. miles, 28th largest state

Bordering States - GA, SC, TN, VA

Origin of the Name- North Carolina was named to honor King Charles I (Carolus is Latin for Charles)

Presidents born in N.C. - James Knox Polk (11th) and Andrew Johnson (17th)

...ends of years ago

From thousands of years ago until the early 1600s over 30 Native American groups called the state home. In the late 1500s new settlers from Britain came to the area to form the colony "Carolina".

States.

Following the American Revolution, North Carolina became the twelfth state of the Union. Later, during the Civil War the state joined the Confederacy in 1861. The troops surrendered in 1865 and joined the Union in 1868.

1903-Wright Brothers Flight
1943-UNC-Pembroke College
became the first Native American
college.

1960-The first ever sit-in occurs to
protest segregation at a diner in Greensboro, NC.

1989-Hurricane Hugo hits causing
wide-spread devastation.

Hurricanes continue to be a
common threat for NC.

1994-Raleigh was voted as one the
best places to live in the United States.

North

State F
State C
Largest Populat
Area-53,
Borderin

Origin of named to Latin for C
Presidents
(IIth) and A